PREFACE.

We take pleasure once more in presenting to the citizens of Quincy and the public in general the QUINCY CITY DIRECTORY for 1899, this being No. 6 in the series.

We have spared neither time, energy or expense to make the book as complete, accurate and up to date as is possible in a work of this kind. We wish to thank those who have advertised and greatly aided us in our work and hope for a much larger patronage in the future. We would call special attention to the map which is one of H. T. Whitman's best, and up to date in every particular.

With thanks to all who have supported us in anyway, we remain,

Respectfully,

W. A. GREENOUGH & CO.

97 Oliver St., Boston.

Dr. RALPH M. FOCC, DENTIST,

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the "Boston Vegetable Vapor."

This new anæsthetic produces absolute insensibility to pain, is safe and has no ill effects.—Christian Advocate.

It controls the patient longer than gas and is much safer.—Portland (Me.) Globe.

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

SHOTS AT THE SALOON.

HENRY H. FAXON.

I know from experience that, under the present local option law, in any town where the temperance people are active, vote "No," and mean business, the sale of liquors can be virtually stopped.

The nation, the state, the town, the party, the society, or the church, which does not adopt temperance as one of its cardinal virtues, stands upon uncertain ground.

One vote at the caucus is often equivalent to more than ten at the polls. The rumsellers and their political tools well know that the caucus must be carried in their interests or their cause is lost.

THE rigor of the law, administered in allopathic doses with a House-of-Correction diet, is the only effective medicine for rumsellers.

The saloon is the school of political debauchery, and it is against this debasing influence that all true temperance men should direct their efforts. The rumseller in his "dive" forges the tools by which he burglariously enters the happy home of the laboring man, and steals the bread from the mouths of the family.

Every dollar expended for liquors as a beverage comes out of the landlord, grocer, baker, tailor, butcher, and others who pursue an honest calling.

The man who votes "No," and then supports those officials whom he knows will not enforce the laws, not only insults himself, but wilfully obstructs the course of justice.

We can never get the saloon out of politics so long as we get our politics out of the saloon.

Just laws will never be enforced enforced by corrupt officials who depend upon criminals to back them up. If you appoint a rascal to be his own hangman he will probably die a natural death.

I have rented houses for more than thirty years, and can safely say that three-fourths of all my losses in rents during that period have been due, directly or indirectly, to the use of intoxicating liquors.

Quincy, under prohibition, has prospered as Quincy under rum rule never did. Her population and valuation are more than one hundred per cent greater than in the last year of License, pauperism has decreased fifty per cent, temptation in one of its most alluring forms has been removed from the young man's daily path, and the community has been orderly and law-abiding.

International Yacht Races for the America's Cup

Competition for the America's Cup grew out of the first contest to establish a world yachting championship, one of the carnival features of the London Exposition of 1851. The race, open to all classes of yachts from all over the world, covered a 60-mile course around the Isle of Wight; the prize was a cup worth about $500, donated by the Royal Yacht Squadron of England, known as the "America's Cup" because it was first won by the United States yacht America. Successive efforts of British yachtsmen have failed to win the famous trophy which remains in the United States. In 1960 the New York Yacht Club accepted a challenge by the Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron of Australia to race for the cup in 1962.
